Understanding your pet dog

Owning a dog should be an absolute joy, but things don't always go to plan. Perhaps he's a bit naughty; maybe he's bored or needs extra stimulation? Maybe you want to take your training to the next level or try something new to do with your dog....

The Guild has trainers across the country, skilled and experienced covering basic pet obedience, competition obedience, agility, gundog training and other specialist disciplines.

“Lead by example, teach that you may learn”

The Guild of Dog Trainers was founded within the tradition of dog training in Britain today. It provides a forum through meetings and training courses to bring together senior representatives of all sectors of canine education to encourage discussion and the exchange of views.

Members of The Guild believe that for the dog to be able to relax and have a stress-free life, more than anything, they need to be treated like a dog and to know where they belong within a mixed-species pack.

Guild of Dog Trainers Professional Development Programme

The Guild is a professional body committed to maintaining and improving the quality of dog training, behaviour and companion dog ownership in Britain.

The GoDT was instrumental in defining the roles for dog behaviour and training disciplines published by the Pet Education, Training & Behaviour Council of Great Britain (PETbc) www.petbc.org.uk. We are also a member of the RCDTBP.

We can help dog trainers too! Visit our website to find out how The Guild of Dog Trainers can help develop your training skills.
